PROJECTS

- BookStore Management System using Flask:-

The Project “BookStore Management System” is a project in which we can login or register as a customer and find books according to our needs and buy them and we have an admin page also where the admin will see who buys the book and other details of customer. I have used Python flask to make the frontend and for the database I used MySQL.

- Text-summarization using Python NLP:-

The Project “Text Summarization” is a project in which we can summarize our larger paragraphs in a small paragraphs/texts. I have used Python flask to make the frontend and Spacy function for the summarization of text.
